Al Farooq Omar Bin Al Khattab Mosque and Centre

Al Farooq Omar Bin Al Khattab Mosque and Centre

Welcome to the Al Farooq Omar Ibn Al Khattab Mosque and Centre, one of the largest mosques in the United Arab Emirates (UAE). An architectural masterpiece located in the heart of Dubai, the mosque's exterior and interior takes its inspiration from the historic Blue Mosque in Istanbul, Turkey.

In addition to serving the Muslim community, the Al Farooq Omar Bin Al Khattab Mosque and Centre welcomes visitors from all corners of the world, bridging cultures of the East and the West and raising awareness about Islamic civilisation, Arabic heritage and the culture of the UAE.

Dress Code

We kindly ask visitors to dress appropriately as the Mosque is a place of worship. Modest, conservative dress is required (loose fitting clothes with long sleeves, long skirts or trousers. Shorts are not permitted).

Visitors will be provided with the UAE traditional dress upon arrival; no shoes are allowed inside the Mosque.

Location

Al Farooq Mosque and Centre is located in the Al Safa area between Al Wasl Road and Sheikh Zayed Road.

Photography

Photography and video cameras are permitted. Commercial and professional photography are available upon request (in advance).
